

Kidsman's Kidshore Striped Standard Sweater

Product Overview

The Kidshore Striped Standard Sweater is a quintessential wardrobe staple designed for active children aged 4-10. Perfect for everyday wear, school days, or casual weekend outings, this versatile sweater offers comfort and a playful aesthetic. Its medium-weight construction makes it ideal for transitional seasons like spring and autumn, providing just the right amount of warmth without bulk.

Material & Fabric Composition

Crafted from a durable and soft knit, the Kidshore sweater comprises 78% BCI Cotton and 22% Recycled Polyester. The BCI cotton ensures a natural, breathable feel against sensitive skin, while the recycled polyester adds resilience, shape retention, and quick-drying properties. This blend results in a fabric with a smooth, slightly textured hand-feel. The fabric weight is approximately 280 GSM (grams per square meter), offering a comfortable mid-weight feel suitable for layering.

Care Instructions

To maintain the quality and longevity of your Kidshore sweater, please follow these care instructions:

Sustainability & Origin

This Kidsman's Kidshore sweater is manufactured in Bangladesh, a region renowned for its skilled textile production. We are committed to responsible sourcing, and the BCI Cotton component ensures that the cotton is sourced in a manner that promotes better standards in cotton farming. The inclusion of recycled polyester contributes to reducing waste and conserving virgin resources, aligning with our broader sustainability goals. While we continuously strive to minimize our environmental footprint, global supply chain complexities mean a precise carbon footprint per garment is currently being calculated.

Style Notes

The classic striped design of the Kidshore sweater makes it incredibly versatile for various looks. For a casual everyday outfit, pair it with dark wash denim jeans and trainers. To add a touch of warmth and style during cooler days, layer it over a crisp white long-sleeve t-shirt and combine with cargo pants or comfortable leggings. This sweater transitions effortlessly through spring and autumn, making it a perfect piece for school, playdates, or weekend family adventures. Its various color options allow for easy coordination with existing wardrobe items.
