Care Instructions

To maintain the performance and longevity of your VelocityFlex Running Shorts:

Sustainability & Origin

These VelocityFlex Running Shorts are mindfully manufactured in Vietnam, a hub known for advanced sportswear production. The main fabric is composed of 90% recycled polyester, certified by the Global Recycled Standard (GRS), reflecting our commitment to reducing textile waste and conserving natural resources. Our production facility adheres to strict environmental and labor standards, ensuring fair working conditions and a reduced carbon footprint throughout the manufacturing process.

Style Notes

These versatile running shorts are perfect for a variety of active endeavors. Pair them with a lightweight technical running tee and your favorite trainers for an unbeatable workout ensemble. For a post-gym casual look, throw on a relaxed-fit graphic t-shirt and some slide sandals. Their adjustable waist ensures a secure fit, while the discreet pocket is ideal for carrying essentials like keys or a small energy gel. Ideal for spring and summer runs, or year-round indoor training.
