Care Instructions

To maintain the quality and longevity of this garment, machine wash cold (30 degC) with similar colors. Do not bleach. Tumble dry low or hang to dry to prevent shrinking and preserve the fabric's integrity. Iron on low heat if necessary, avoiding direct contact with elastic trims. Do not dry clean.

Sustainability & Origin

This Little Wanderer romper is proudly manufactured in Portugal, adhering to high European labor and environmental standards. We are committed to sustainable practices; therefore, this garment is made from 100% recycled nylon, certified by the Global Recycled Standard (GRS), ensuring the material comes from post-consumer waste. By choosing recycled materials, we actively reduce our carbon footprint and minimize landfill waste.

Style Notes

This versatile red romper can be effortlessly styled for various occasions. For a charming daytime look, pair it with a simple white short-sleeved bodysuit underneath and soft canvas booties. For cooler evenings or a touch of bohemian flair, layer with a delicate knit cardigan in cream or natural tones and add a cute sun hat. Perfect for seaside holidays, picnics, or simply lounging in the garden during the warmer months.
