

Little Athlete's Dream Puffer: The Seda Sports Pink Jacket

Product Overview

Introduce your child to the perfect blend of warmth and playful style with our Seda Sports Pink Puffer Jacket. Designed for active youngsters, this vibrant pink coat is ideal for everything from chilly playground adventures to weekend family outings. Its lightweight yet insulating design makes it a versatile staple for cooler autumn days and mild winter escapades.

Material & Fabric Composition

Crafted for comfort and durability, the jacket features a shell made from 100% Recycled Polyester, offering excellent wind and water resistance. The inner lining is also 100% Recycled Polyester, ensuring a smooth feel against the skin. For superior warmth without bulk, it's filled with 100% Recycled Polyester insulation. This combination results in a cozy yet breathable garment with a fabric weight of approximately 180 GSM, providing a soft, slightly matte finish with a subtle quilted texture.

Care Instructions

To maintain the integrity and longevity of your Seda Sports Pink Puffer Jacket, please follow these instructions:

Sustainability & Origin

This jacket is proudly manufactured in Bangladesh, a region renowned for its ethical garment production practices. We are committed to minimizing our environmental impact, which is why this product is made with 100% Recycled Polyester, certified by the Global Recycled Standard (GRS). This certification ensures that the material has been verified as recycled content through the supply chain. By utilizing recycled materials, we actively reduce waste and conserve natural resources, contributing to a lower overall carbon footprint compared to virgin polyester production.

Style Notes

The vibrant pink hue of the Seda Sports Puffer makes it a fun statement piece.
